RE: 16-FOIA-272 Info – [REDACTED] Accident 8/16/2016

Dear Mr. Arrigo:

We are in receipt of your request for information pursuant to the Illinois Freedom of Information Act, 5 ILCS 140/1 et seq. (“FOIA”).

I. Background

On October 25, 2016, we received your request for any and all documents, police reports, incident reports, physical evidence, photographs, audio recordings, dispatch calls/recordings, dash cam recordings and/or videos related to a traffic accident involving [REDACTED] on August 16, 2016 on I-94 N/B north of Willow Road (“Request”). Your Request is granted in part and denied in part.

II. Responsive Document

In response to your Request, Metra is providing you with a copy of Metra police report #MP-00029832 for the above-referenced traffic accident occurring on August (“Responsive Document”).

After performing a diligent search of Metra’s records, we have been unable to locate any of the additional records requested. Metra’s Police Department states this accident was under the jurisdiction of the Illinois State Police and Metra does not maintain records of outside agencies. You may submit your request for records to:

Ms. Nancy Easum
Illinois State Police
Freedom of Information Officer
801 South 7th Street, Suite 1000-S
Springfield, Illinois 62703
E-mail: FOIA\_Officer@isp.state.il.us

III. Partial Denial

While FOIA requires public bodies to provide access to public records generally, FOIA also authorizes units of government to withhold certain information. Therefore, Attorney Jamie Harrmann has determined that the following portions of the Responsive Document are exempt from disclosure under certain provisions of FOIA:

1. The driver's license number, employee identification number, password, personal telephone number, home address, and personal license plate number of the parties mentioned in the Responsive Document are being redacted because they are exempt from disclosure under Section 7(1)(b) of FOIA, which exempts "private information." "Driver's license numbers," "employee identification numbers," "passwords," "personal telephone numbers," and "home addresses" are specifically mentioned within the definition of "private information" found in Section 2(c-5) of FOIA.
2. The dates of birth, physical descriptions, and insurance policy numbers of the parties mentioned in the Responsive Document, as well as the LEADS number are being redacted because they are exempt from disclosure under Section 7(1)(c) of FOIA, which exempts "personal information contained within public records, the disclosure of which would constitute a clearly unwarranted invasion of personal privacy...." Section 7(1)(c) goes on to say that, "'Unwarranted invasion of personal privacy' means the disclosure of information that is highly personal or objectionable to a reasonable person and in which the subject's right to privacy outweighs any legitimate public interest in obtaining the information." It has been determined that the aforementioned data falls squarely within that definition and its redaction is appropriate under FOIA.
3. Section 7(1)(a) of FOIA exempts "[i]nformation specifically prohibited from disclosure by federal or State law or rules and regulations implementing federal or State law." 5 ILCS 140/7(1)(a). Accordingly, the home address, date of birth, driver's license number, and any physical description of the party mentioned in the Responsive Document are exempt from disclosure per the Driver's Privacy Protection Act, 18 U.S.C. § 2721 et seq., which prohibits individuals from knowingly obtaining or disclosing "personal information" from a motor vehicle record.

IV. Right of Review

You have the right to have the partial denial of your Request reviewed by the Public Access Counselor ("PAC") of the Illinois Attorney General's Office. 5 ILCS 140/9.5(a). You can file your Request for Review with the PAC by writing to:
